IcSP – Counter Terrorism (CT)

- The objective is to disrupt terrorist networks & activities of recruiters, cut off terrorist funding and bring terrorists to justice while respecting human rights and international law.
- STRIVE Global:* This support will work globally with local state and non-state partners to develop and implement interventions that have an impact on the threat posed by radicalisation and recruitment to terrorism.
- Regional CT law enforcement Horn of Africa: This support will build capacity in the core areas of the criminal justice process (case preparation, development and integrity).
- CT Monitoring, Reporting and Support Mechanism- CT MORSE:* This support will strengthen the global delivery, coordination and coherence among the various CT projects financed by the EU.

IcSP – CT STRIVE Hedayah

The International Centre of Excellence for CVE – Hedayah. Hedayah works directly with civil society organisations and community groups.

Results:

- Strengthened capacity of security sector & law enforcement authorities to engage with civil society in fighting violent extremism and applying non-coercive responses to terrorism.
- Strengthened capacity of civil society organisations to deliver actions that prevent and counter violent extremism.
- Strengthened capacity of media to contribute to a responsible and pluralistic media environment that challenges violent extremism.

IcSP – CT STRIVE GCERF

The Global Community Engagement and Resilience Fund (GCERF) is the first-ever multi-stakeholder fund to support local, grass-roots efforts to counter violent extremism (CVE).

Its emphasis is a bottom-up, country-led approach that will allow non-government organizations (NGOs) and sub-national government organizations/agencies to apply for grants to fund projects that meet local needs whose objective is to steer groups and individuals away from the use of violence.

IcSP – Regional CT law enforcement Horn of Africa

The Case Integrity component of this programme will focus on strengthened application of due process and international human rights standards when countering terrorism.

Emphasis will be placed on delivering training and guidance to law enforcement and judiciary authorities on promoting and protecting human rights as part of the CT response. The result will pay particular attention to terrorism investigations, evidence collection and interrogation methods and issues of arrest and detention which have emerged as key in consultations with stakeholders.

IcSP – Cocaine Route Programme (1)

The Programme's objective is to strengthen partner countries capacities in their efforts to fight organised crime and drug trafficking and encourage South-South cooperation (LAC and Africa), with activities in three main domains: interception of illicit drugs, anti-money laundering and information sharing.

Criminal Investigation and Justice Cooperation:

- The specific objective is to increase the capacity of criminal justice and law enforcement officials to effectively investigate, prosecute and adjudicate in an accountable way organised crime and drug trafficking-related cases via enhanced regional and transregional cooperation along the Cocaine Route(s).*
- One of the expected results of this project is to enhance the accountability of criminal justice and law enforcement systems encouraging stronger participation of Civil Society Organisations.*
- Contacts have been made with key civil society actors to incorporate transparency and accountability mechanisms in capacity-building modules.*

IcSP – Cocaine Route Programme (2)

CORMS III

- The specific objective of this component is to strengthen the coordination and coherence among the various projects of the Cocaine Route Programme, both within the programme itself (internal coherence) and with respect to any other relevant initiative, conducted by the EU, Member States or other international organisations (external coherence).
- Better reach out to and involvement of local and European CSOs is planned under specific activities (raising awareness).

IcSP – Heroin Route

Preparing the launch of the identification and formulation exercise for the next phase of the Heroin Route Programme addressing trafficking to/from Afghanistan which is planned for AAP 2015.

Planning to liaise with key civil society actors in this process to discuss means of incorporating transparency and accountability mechanisms in the law enforcement capacity building.

Thank you for listening!
