The Mid Term Review of the IcSP was very positive.

The evaluators consider that globally the IcSP:

- significantly contributed to the EU policy priorities and external action strategies;
- has delivered on its commitments, and most of its actions are effective;
- it's efficient, flexible and fast;
- it's responsive to a fast evolving peace and security context.
- contributed to the promotion of the European values in a sector increasingly affected by securitisation.
The Art. 8 of IcSP regulation states that Thematic Strategy Papers (SP) shall constitute the general basis for the assistance under art. 4 and 5, providing the framework for cooperation between the EU and the partner countries.

The SP is accompanied by a Multiannual Indicative Programme (MIP) summarising the priorities, the specific objectives and the indicators of the Union assistance.

The SP has been approved in 2014 for the whole period 2014-2020 whereas the first MIP covers the period 2014-2017.

A new Multiannual Indicative Programme has to be proposed and approved for the remaining period of IcSP, 2018-2020.

Consultations to be held with CSO, Commission Services, EP, MS
Timeline for MIP 2018-2020:
- By end Dec. 2017: consultations and draft proposal
- January 2018: dialogue with the EP
- Feb 2018: Final proposal
- April 2018: Approval

The MIP 2018-2020 is based on the IcSP priorities for Art. 4 and 5 identified in the Regulation and on the Thematic Strategic Paper

The MIP should take also into account the new Regulation about the CBSD Capacity Building in support of Security and Development
