

10 benefits of EPLO membership

1. Receiving information about EU funding opportunities by participating in EPLO's Funding for Peace Working Group
2. Receiving information about EU policy developments by participating in EPLO's Policy Working Group and/or other thematic and geographic-focused working groups¹
3. Receiving support to identify relevant officials in EU institutions and EU Member States' permanent representations in Brussels
4. Receiving information about and invitations to participate in consultations on issues of relevance to the EU's support to peacebuilding
5. Increasing the visibility of your organisation and/or raising awareness about a particular area of your organisation's work by hosting a Brown Bag Lunch event
6. Increasing the visibility of your organisation's publications, events and job vacancies by sharing them through the EPLO website, newsletters and social media channels
7. Co-organising events with the EPLO office
8. Adding EU perspectives to your internal and/or public events through the participation of EPLO staff members
9. Engaging with representatives of other European peacebuilding organisations by participating in EPLO's annual General Assembly and/or directors meetings and calls
10. Enabling your organisation's communications people to exchange ideas, best practices etc. with their peers in other organisations by participating in EPLO's Communications Community of Practice

For more information about EPLO membership, please contact Sonya Reines-Djivanides.

¹ EPLO's current working groups: Africa, Climate Crisis and Peacebuilding, Eastern Neighbourhood and Western Balkans, EU Support to Peace Processes, Funding for Peace, Gender, Peace and Security; Middle East and North Africa; and Policy.